NUCW President's Message - Where there is Faith, there is Hope

Friendship, Faith, and Hope at UCW 60th

Hymn # 654 VU All My Hope Is Firmly Grounded

Prayer # 587 VU ¹ A Prayer For Hope

"God, like a bakerwoman,
you bring the leaven
which causes our hopes to rise.
With your strong and gentle hands,
shape our lives.
Warm us with your love.
Take our common lives
and touch them with your grace,
that we may nourish hope among humanity.
We pray trusting in your name,
through Jesus our Christ. Amen"

Psalm 23; David talks of his faith that God will lead him in pastures green, and beside quiet waters. His hopes are answered with his faith, he will fear no evil. He will be comforted. In the presence of his enemies, he will be fed and not go thirsty. Love will follow all the days of his life, and he will dwell in the house of the Lord.

Psalm 25; No one whose hope is in God will be put to shame, as we have faith and trust; God will lead us down the right path, to guide and teach us his truth, our hope is in him for the rest of our days.

1 Thessalonians 4:13; Paul told his fellow believers not to grieve hopelessly, but he did not challenge them to forgo grieving. Grief is different for those who have faith. Even in the depths of sorrow, hope breathes.

We may be immune from persecution, but there are those in foreign lands who are not so blessed. We may enjoy our peaceful green pastures, but war, discrimination, and unrest devastate the land of a lot of lambs. Pray with hope, that the world be released from the distractions of power, greed and discrimination, and turn to the faith in our loving shepherd.

As this is my last message as the National UCW President I would like to thank you for your support and allowing me the leadership of a wonderful group of ladies across this magnificent land. With the faith of our Father, I hope for peace, love, and joy.

With Blessings,

Nancy Risto, National UCW President

AN INVITATION TO PRAYER

We invite all United Church Women to include in your weekly prayers a message of hope and healing for our world and its people.

Banner Art: Winsloe United Church Sunday School, PEI bring Hope to life in this colourful banner: With the UCW 60th Continuing in Hope logo, along with hopes for a bright future carried aloft by butterflies. Into your hands, oh God we send prayers: Dear God of HOPE, LOVE, JOY, AND PEACE, guide our prayer for Canada, and encourage and strengthen us as we add our personal prayers.

Canada Is Burning!

We pray for all people across our great country who are affected by the raging wildfires, too many to count, that are threatening their homes and lives. We pray for those who are affected by the smoke, finding it difficult to breathe and go about their daily tasks. We give thanks for the fire fighters and first responders from all the provinces and other countries and those who have volunteered for this dangerous task. May they be held safely in God's arms. Whenever and wherever possible, may we find ways locally to give our resources and support to assist with their efforts. We pray for all of God's beautiful creation and pray with hope that weather conditions change to bring much needed relief. May we do our part by obeying the bans on campfires and other burning and exercise extreme care and caution while vacationing this summer. Amen (Prayer written by P. Edmonds, SWUCW)

A Woman's Blessing – Reflections for our time

Woman is worth far more than rubies. She works with eager hands. She is diligent and proactive and discerning. Her arms are strong for her tasks. She opens her arms to the poor. She is kind. She is humble. She nurtures. She is skilled in the workings of the home and community. She is savvy in business. She is clothed in armor with strength and dignity. She speaks with wisdom. She is devoted to God. She is Joyful. She laughs at the days to come! (Reflection composed by K. Gardner; based on Proverbs 31)

The Sunflower Prayer

Plant me like a sunflower, Lord, deep in the fold of your will. Forge my faith in soil's darkness, sprout hope up as I wait still. Grow me like a sunflower, Lord, leaning close toward your light. Extend bright rays of direction, keep me warm in your sight. Adorn me like a sunflower, Lord, humbly wearing a righteous crown. Stack petals of mercy and grace, golden forgiveness in Christ I've found. Use me like a sunflower, Lord, to offer nourishment and cheer. Harvest the Spirit's fruits within me, encourage others you are drawing near. Surround me like a sunflower, Lord, in a field of believers ripe with faith. Bring us together for a troubled world, display your love through our bouquet. Thank you, Lord, for creating endearing reminders of your Word. Looking up, away from the earth's concerns, my gaze meets yours, and joy like a mighty sunflower stirs. {by Jamie Trunnel ©2020} Poem is one from Jamie's book A Soul's Anchor, available on Amazon.

NUCW AGM September 18-22, 2023.

Draw Your Circle Wide - Celebrate Summer as UCW

Celebrate Summer! Draw your circles wide! We have much to celebrate and much to be grateful for. The forest fires across the country, although still burning, are being managed expertly to keep as many communities out of danger as is possible and people are returning to supportive and caring friends and family in this time of rebuilding. The smoke is clearing and we can keep the doors and windows open to allow the gentle breezes to flow through and cheer us, and to allow us the time to share our prayers of thankfulness and hopefulness for those here in our own country, in Ukraine, and in many other places around the world where care and prayer can do so much to help. God's handiwork really is marvelous!

There seems to be much going on, in, and around our UCW circles as is evident by the articles submitted to Keeping in Touch this month. UCW and other church women are busy with their gardens, flowers are a-blooming and vegetables are a-growing to produce a good harvest this year. Women are reaching out and keeping in touch with phone calls and messages and cards to ensure no-one must be lonely this summer. We are not required this year to isolate!

Let's plan to gather together as women of faith, for fellowship, for faith and for fun and then do it again, now that we can. Let's build and rebuild in the coming year, so that all feel welcome. Let's not put an age limit on it! Let's make it about moms, daughters, aunties and grands and greats! Let's come as we are! Let's come with a friend! Yes, we as UCW, do have a great history. That amazing tribe of women who came before us all have created an outstanding organization that is worthy of our continued support; for now, perhaps, in a new way of being UCW. So, let's gather! Let's draw our circle wide! Let's expand our ideas of what we can do together to support our families, our communities, our churches, our planet!

So, we will gather, and sure, why not share the UCW heritage recipe along with that walk in the forest, nature trail or city park? Do a craft – sing some camp songs and favorite hymns – arrange for a garden tour – a speaker – create a banner- host a movie night - cheer on the local team – or “hurry hard” at a curling bonspiel – make it fun as you practice your faith and your fellowship, and, o.k., perhaps a little fundraising too. And, you might just be surprised at what this positivity attracts, and the growth you see as you make that invitation sincerely and authentically to other women in your spaces and places, to the women that don't always show up for the event; but you find out later, just needed to be asked. What does your gathering look like to you - is it in-person, on-line, a hybrid, is it flexible? Do it! Then share your stories with Keeping in Touch! Shared in love as Sisters in Christ,

Barbara Davison, NUCW President-Elect / Karen Gardner, NUCW Secretary

Philanthropy and Giving

United Church Women across the whole church can be very proud! We have always found creative ways to fund important initiatives in our communities and to support global human need. Thank you! Through these donations, lives are transformed. The church has been able to inspire meaning and purpose for communities, and is continuing to deepen discipleship as we all work to build a better world.

In a recent letter, signed jointly by The Right Rev. Dr. Carmen Lansdowne, Moderator and Sarah Charters, Executive Officer, Philanthropy, we have this news to share:

The United Church Women across the whole church are recognized for giving $475,061 in donations in 2022 for Mission and Service

United Church Women 5 Year Special Project – THE HEALING FUND

NATIONAL UCW Support Indigenous Women, Children, and Families

New for 2023, United Church Women (UCW) are making donations to support the programming designed by our Healing Fund partners for Indigenous women and children. The primary focus is healing the family through culture and language while meeting individual supports within the program. Through The Healing Fund application process, for the next five years, this priority group has been added, designed to specifically support women and children. The Healing Fund acknowledges the UCW for their generous blessing and donations to ensure Indigenous women and children receive adequate support and encouragement. For further inquiries and information on this priority group, please reach out to our Healing Fund Coordinator at healing@united-church.ca.

The Healing Fund is a grant program which supports healing initiatives in Indigenous communities to address the ongoing impacts of the residential school system. Many survivors name a need for mending, restoring, and celebrating — acknowledging a sense of loss, along with hope for rebuilding identity. Programs that have been supported throughout the years include healing and sharing circles, reunions and commemorations, traditional and cultural programs, language revitalization, workshops for residential school survivors and families, spiritual gatherings, creating digital resources, and more: Healing Fund projects and criteria

Printed for sharing is the letter sent May 19, 2023 to NUCW Executive from
Joni Shawana, Healing Program Coordinator

It is my pleasure to share wonderful news with the National United Church Women of the first Healing Fund project supported by the NUCW community.

As of April 19, 2023, the total amount of gifts received to the Healing Fund from UCW members was $5,077.60. Throughout the Spring 2023 Healing Fund review, our Healing Fund Working Group focused on our agreement that allows these gifts to support Indigenous Women, Children and Family programming that focuses on the healing of intergenerational trauma affected by Indian Residential Schools.

After carefully reviewing our applicants, our HPWG has selected Regina Native Outreach Ministries as the project supported by UCW for their “Mother & Baby Welcome Bag” program.

Below is a brief description of their program:

Regina Native Outreach Ministry's Mother & Baby Welcome Bags were created to address the ongoing impacts of intergenerational trauma caused by residential schools. Indigenous mothers giving birth at Regina General Hospital are subjected to racism, discrimination, and violation of rights. Birth alerts, where hospital staff identify a mother as being unable care for her baby, are a continuing practice based on stereotypical and racist assumptions of Indigenous women as incompetent, promiscuous, and bad, which were the same messages inflicted on Indigenous girls through residential schools.

RNOM gifts Indigenous mothers giving birth at Regina General Hospital with a large, reusable bag containing essential items for their newborn baby and themselves. For the newborns there are diapers, baby wipes, diaper rash cream, baby soap, burp clothes, sleeper, onesies, and a handmade blanket (knit, crochet or quilted). For the mothers, there are personal care products like sanitary napkins, breast pads and a small gift such as socks, lip balm and a candle. Also included in the bag is a traditional medicine pouch containing the four traditional medicines of sage, sweetgrass, tobacco and cedar that has been blessed by RNOM's ordained minister with a smudge and a prayer. These welcome bags also include a greeting card with a message of love, respect and caring to let the new mother know she is not alone on her journey and an explanation of how the new mother may use the medicine pouch to connect with her ancestors. In addition, the welcome bags contain an information card with contacts for spiritual support and access to elders. A full description of their program, goals, and objectives [is available*].

We invite you to share this news with NUCW congregations so that members will learn more of the RNOM program and will be able to support future Indigenous Healing programs alike. If you have any further questions or concerns, please feel free to reach me. In Spirit & Unity,

Pacific Mountain Region UCW – Don't Worry – Be Happy

United Church Women in the Pacific Mountain Region gather and celebrate in spite of the distances, both land and sea, that separate them. All women of Pacific Mountain Region UCW joined in, in spirit, when reading about Fraser Area UCWs in-person gathering last fall. At this joyous tea party one heritage teacup & saucer which travelled all the way from Maritime Region UCW and the UCW 60th Anniversary, was gifted to an honoured guest, Betty Dunham-Gledhill. Betty served for thirty-eight years on Fraser Presbyterial/Area Executive! Thank you, Betty, for your gifts, skills, and devotion to UCW!

Members Line Dance and "Be Happy" at PM AGM this Spring.

For the AGM this April 2023, in Squamish, BC, Pacific Mountain United Church Women chose the lighter theme, "Don't Worry, Be Happy", in light of so many crises in the world today. The Agenda covered all the business items, with Winnie Kowalewich returned as President. Joyful hymns, devotionals, songs from the UCW parodies songbook, line-dancing, laughter, book exchange, hats and gloves modelling, and delicious food rounded out the meeting. Keynote Speaker Rev. Debra Bowman, spoke on knowing the difference between joy and happiness. It was a day filled with faith and fun.

The UCW of Peninsula United Church in Surrey, BC made an incredible discovery during a post flood cleanup in December 2022, receiving a number of boxes of paper records, undamaged by the flood, dating back to 1950! Handwritten minutes of the Women's Association were part of the treasure! This June all items were transferred to the Regional Archives. This event raised the question, "What is happening to this valuable history for churches that are closing and/or sold?" It will be a great shame for our UCW history to be forgotten.

Note: If your church has items of history to be preserved, the UCW Handbook (download from the UCW webpage here) has information regarding archive guidelines in Appendix 11.

Elder Cheryle Grey Eyes

Honoured Guests: Elder Cheryle Greyeyes: Cheryle is a member of the Muskeg Lake Cree Nation, Treaty 6, Saskatchewan and is a member of the University of Calgary community. She shared stories of her people in word and song and spoke of her time of marching for missing and murdered indigenous women and girls. She introduced us to the Medicine Wheel, which is a teaching tool, to learn the importance of the four sacred medicines: sage, cedar, sweetgrass, tobacco and the four elements: air, fire, earth, and water.

Adele Halliday – Anti- Racism and Equity Lead, United Church of Canada General Council Office. Adele led and challenged us to consider and understand "Respect"; "Mattering"; "Marginality"; to understand "the "other" point of view. We discussed what we can do to dismantle unjust power, to move toward a 'place for all'.

Rev. Pamela Scott: Led us in our closing worship and communion in the beautiful Chapel.

The Strummers: Entertained with the favorite "old" songs to match our ages!

On a personal note, I have just returned from a two-week, "trip of a lifetime" to Ireland. Such a beautiful country. My bus tour began and ended in Limerick. Journeying along Ireland's coast, it was an exceptional opportunity to gather knowledge of the history, culture, and language of this beautiful country. I returned home enriched!

Saskatchewan United Church of Canada Women (SUCCW) Living Skies Region

Discerning a Good Path Together United Church Women, part of SUCCW network, used their gifts and skills this past May, in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, securing an information display table at the Living Skies Regional Council meeting. Pamphlets from many of the local and regional women's groups, copies of the NUCW published newsletter - Keeping in Touch Newsletter for UCW, information from Women's Inter-church Council of Canada (WICC), and Saskatchewan UCW Bursary Fund brochures were distributed.

Beautiful Stained-Glass Window
Living Skies Region

The highlight of the annual meeting was an invitation to take part in the PowWow that was hosted by the local indigenous community for all ages, featuring traditional dancing, singing and story telling. Elder Bunny Ermine extended a welcome that started the meeting in a good way, sharing his story and offering a prayer. On Friday Chief Cadmus Delorme offered deep wisdom and insight on the Indigenous World view. Saturday morning, Elder Liz Settee shared her story and thoughts on what Reconciliation looks like, and Charlene and Russ Burns offered teachings and leadership around Remit 3, regarding the autonomy of the Indigenous Church. On Sunday morning an Elder offered smudging in front of the Calvary United Church entrance, to all who attended worship. The Sermon by Rev. Michele Rowe of Maple Creek gave insight into our future as a church and as humans living in harmony on Mother Earth. She said, "if we are to choose to walk together into the future as Indigenous and non-Indigenous people, newcomers and long-timers, rural and urban dwellers, ministry personnel and lay leaders, young and old, we would do well to follow those who walk softly and humbly, those at home with land and sky and the Creator who made them...for healing to happen, for progress to be made, we must undertake the longest journey of them all, the one between our heads and our hearts". The complete sermon may be read on the Living Skies website under Women's Network.

As we all work to discover a good path together, women in Saskatchewan remind us of an important message from Jesus as written in Matthew 28: "Do not be afraid...I will be with you always, to the end of the age.” It is hard to “not be afraid” these days. To not be afraid for our youth, our communities, our churches; but we must also believe that “God is with us”; and that “we are not alone” on our journey.

Prairie to Pine (P2P) Region UCW- Zoom, Faith, and Fellowship

United Church Women in the far-flung corners of Prairie to Pine Region UCW don’t allow distance to keep them from gathering. “Zoom” is the medium and Faith and Fellowship are the messages shared along with the coffee; and not only in Regional Executive meetings. The invitation has gone out to join in to a regularly scheduled Monthly Tuesday On-Line Coffee Chat. Contact igpokotylo@gmail.com for the link. Also to note that P2P UCW who have lost their church or unit may (as can any member across Canada and in Bermuda) sign up for Individual UCW membership (See Page 3). Technology is a channel to keep faith and spirit strong, information flowing, energy high and friends connected. P2P Region members were able to join in virtually to the Ontario based WOW-UCWs Zoom launch broadcast supporting The Healing Fund with Joni Shawana in February this year. These women are making UCW work in new ways.

Antler River Watershed Region (ARWR) UCW – Reimagine Familiar Patterns and Look to Modern Horizons

Past-President Marjorie MacMillan encouraged units to contribute their stories for this issue of Keeping in Touch. The focus this year in ARWR is to organize to “familiar patterns yet look forward to modern horizons.” Women are realizing that they are returning to life after Covid restrictions with more knowledge, skills, resilience, and strength to be able to benefit others and support their own mission and vision.

Women of the region are truly living their purpose as UCW.

May 1st First St. Andrew’s U.C. led by Laurel Kenney and Nancy Quinn, welcomed Brandon Doxtator, Environment Consultation Coordinator for Oneida Nation of The Thames to speak on the “Water Issues Facing the Oneida” project; a huge endeavor, requiring community and others to participate if it is to be

June 3rd, Mount Brydges: First bake sale since Covid closures; June 12th Camp Kee-Mo-Kee welcomed a UCW group of twenty-two women for an orientation day before the summer camp launches for kids. Attendees shared a day in camp life, meeting staff with Jill Hodgins, greeting favorite books with Mary Dillon in the Resource Centre, showing acting skills with drama coach Nancy Urquhart, singing with Neila Lawson, excelling at trivia led by June Gwalchmai and not to be forgotten, a classic bag lunch before closing with worship and communion with Rev. Mary Dillon. June 14th, St. Andrew's UCW, Chatham celebrated summer and reflected on life's miracles at their Annual Meeting. Horseshoe Falls Region UCW – Spring Means Renewal

In April, sixty-two women met at Five Oaks Retreat Centre for the AGM and a day of renewal. We were blessed to have Keynote Speaker, Rev. Alison Mock, who began worship by reading Psalm 30 – "Joy Comes in the Morning". The psalmist wrote about the effort to rebuild the temple; that the people were in the 'pit', at the very bottom, in a place of hopelessness. How can you sing when you are in a place of hopelessness? Rev. Alison gave a modern context to her presentation by sharing the story line of the movie "Inside Out", a film presenting all the emotions as members of a team, inside a child's head. Joy is in charge, but is challenged by Sadness. The story evolves as Joy struggles with, "what to do about Sadness?" How can Joy break through? Rev. Alison reminded the group that it is here, in the depths of grief, that help comes. As God shares some of our burdens, we are brought back to a place to experience Joy. It was a wonderful day that included round-table discussions, lunch and a craft, and time to be together as Sisters in Christ.

Love of Creation: Putting Faith into Action for Climate Justice

WOW United Church Women have been using technology (Zoom gatherings) for the past few years as a means to engage and communicate throughout their region and out to the wider church. This new way of supporting each other and sharing new ideas of "being" as UCW is working well. First engaged to support Steering Committee meetings, it evolved to be an important support as Covid shut Canada down. WOW UCW will continue to meet as executive for planning and brainstorming. Advantages to using Zoom over face-to-face? Meetings are focused and efficient and it helps us to lower our carbon footprint by not driving to meetings. Zoom isn't without its challenges, as some attendees must connect by phone. The mood remains collaborative in spite of this, occasionally evolving into a meal-sharing meeting, or simply into an on-line chat.

In February, 2023, approximately 80 women met by zoom to hear guest speaker, Joni Shawana, UCC Co-ordinator of The Healing Fund kick off our NUCW Special Five-Year Project. Women from New Brunswick to British Columbia as well as from more centrally located regions attended on Zoom. This video is posted on our WOW Regional website on the UCW page and is available if anyone wishes to watch it at <https://youtu.be/3OCR5go8fh4>. Joni is introduced at approximately 9 minutes, 40 seconds, and her presentation goes on until about 48 minutes in to the event. Forest Hill United Church in Kitchener was the backdrop for this year's Annual General Meeting, held on Earth Day 2023, Saturday April 22nd. We experimented with an in-person/live YouTube AGM. Instead of having a catered meal, approximately 45 women brought their own brown-bag lunches. Tea and coffee were available as well as some treats from the hosting UCW. At 1 pm, the in-person meeting was live-streamed via YouTube. We were supported by women from other regions as well. Our guest speaker, Lori Neale of General Council's Church in Mission Unit, led us in a combined presentation and worship on the theme, "For the Love of Creation." Lori shared what individual congregations within the UCC are doing to cut their environmental footprint across Canada. A YouTube version of this service is posted on the WOW Regional Council website, and it has logged a good number of views since posting. The meeting is available for viewing at the following link: WOW UCW Regional April AGM

We have been very fortunate to have the support of Michelle Pettick, a shared staff member of the WOW/Antler River Waterways/and Horseshoe Falls Regional Councils, who has uploaded our presentations for us on the regional website.

If you are interested in exploring some of the potential for hybrid meetings, it is relatively simple if you have a local church with the technology to live-stream their church services on YouTube. We are not computer gurus. But we have found that there are Communities of Faith with the technology and the technicians to help us turn our dreams and ideas into a format that enables more of our members to attend and be involved, and that allows us to worship and support one another even though distances, weather, and our membership make travel more difficult. Shining Waters Region UCW: Moving Forward- Staying Strong Shining Waters Region UCW held their Annual Meeting and Dinner in person for the first time since the beginning of the COVID pandemic on May 2nd, 2023, at Burton Ave. United Church in Barrie.

With careful planning, the agenda covered all business and 2024 budget approval, and provided an uplifting time of faith, fellowship, and refreshments in a one-day program. The joy on the members' faces as they greeted friends face-to-face after such a long time was evident. Many members had not seen the beautiful banner (shown with D. Aikman and J. Blanchette), stitched by Barbara

Shining Waters Regional UCW Executive for the coming year will be led by new President, June Blanchette (centre)

Hendren, that went with us to the 60th Anniversary in Sydney last July. In addition to the Shining Waters Region UCW logo being featured on our banner, Rik Aikman made us a stunning stained-glass version to be displayed at all our meetings. The President, Diane Aikman, led the singing with her guitar and all 60 of us enjoyed singing our praises to God. Rev. Kirsty Hunter, inspired by our meeting theme, encouraged us to remember our past accomplishments and build on them in new and exciting ways. Time was spent in small group discussions to share what we had learned from the COVID experience and what plans we have for the future. Members donated worship and program books for the Book Exchange, filling book bags with free “new-to-you” resources. The new Shining Waters Region Executive, with President June Blanchette at the helm, was installed by Joyce MacKinnon, a past National UCW President. Andrea Wheaton DLM, pastor at Burton Ave. UC and Nancy Umphrey, ordinand 2023, conducted the communion service. Diane Aikman led the Vesper Service and we were all able to head for home right after dinner.

RIBBON SKIRTS

Creations From the Spirit of Giving

Kente Area UCWs brought ribbon to our recent Annual...for use in teaching the skills of making traditional ribbon skirts. A community leader working with teachers, Indigenous students and the homeless put the ribbon to use and here are some of the results! The blue ribbon on the dreamcatcher print skirt (in photo with family pet trying to steal the show) come from a UCW collection. One of the skirts includes the medicine wheel with colours reflected in the United Church crest.

Bay of Quinte ECOR UCW – Catching the Spirit

At our April Annual Meeting, we poured coloured stones into a vase to recognize both the different presbyterial Areas that form our Regional UCW and to create a rainbow symbolic of our being an Affirming Ministry. In May, Bay of Quinte UCW ECOR received a new rainbow flag at the ECORC General Meeting. Our facebook page - unitedchurchwomen ECOR – shows photos of our AGM where a Mohawk Traditional Healer shared the Thanksgiving Address in gratitude for our interconnection with all creation. Also posted: notices about a September. Quin-Mo-Lac Weekend, “Moved by the Spirit,” with the Kairos Blanket Exercise, workshops, and lakeside devotions; a fall Workshop on the new United Church digital music resource “Then Let Us Sing;” and our fall online book club on “What Comes from Spirit” by Richard Wagamese.

Whether by Zoom or in person, something wonderful happens when our UCW communities come together! Take for example, Kente Area UCW; members collected and contributed ribbon supplies for use by a community leader teaching Indigenous students the skills of making ribbon skirts and shirts. One of the creations shows the traditional medicine wheel with the colours reflected in the United Church Crest.

Eastern Ontario Outaouais Region (EOOR) UCW – Gifts of the Holy Spirit

For the women of EOOR UCW their vote to become an affirming UCW region is a joyful forward step in their journey toward living out their purpose as United Church Women. Embracing the concepts of Deep Spirituality, Bold Discipleship and Daring Justice may come slowly at first, but women of the region are encouraging and supporting a new way to be as UCW, and as members of United Church of Canada, as we vision for the future.

EOOR UCW's 81st Summer Event 2023 is scheduled for July 14 & 15, 2023. The Theme: "Steady As A Rock" will offer participants reflections and activities to answer the question, "How is your Body, Mind and Spirit?" With guidance from Workshop Leaders, attendees are expected to come away with a toolkit of positive tips to uplift the spirit, direct hope, and support faith. The MacIntosh Inn and Conference Centre, located in beautiful Morrisburg, Ontario is the venue. Lakeshore Drive United Church, in Morrisburg, will host Sunday Worship July 16th to include event guests. Not many know that this lovely church is also the home of the Lakeshore Labyrinth Walk, which overlooks the St. Lawrence River and is available to all wishing to experience it. To join the service on Sunday, please contact Carolle Dallas-Arbuckle at cdallas@ripnet.com for details. The church will print extra bulletins based on expected attendance.

Canada East

Nakhonka:ka: Quebec Regional UCW – People of the East - Hope and Possibility

The word Nakhonka:ka is a Mohawk word, a reference to "the people of the east, the people of the rising sun," and there are no Mohawk communities in Canada further east than Quebec. The Nakhonka:ka logo illustrates the people of the land celebrating the rising sun of a new day in the Eastern sky. The image also represents hope and possibility, rooted in the age-old blessing of the land and the community, supporting each other. Quebec women duplicated this logo on their banner for the UCW 60th Anniversary in Sydney, NS, shown here.

Fundy St. Lawrence - Dawning Waters - Region 15/Bermuda: Maritime UCW – Tuning into Purpose As we silence our hearts, our minds and ourselves, may we find a way to "unclutter" our thoughts for just a short time and "Tune In" to the Spirit. Amen

At a two-day gathering in Moncton, NB, women from across the Maritime UCW were invited to "Tune in to Purpose." In the aftermath of "Covid Time" gathering in person is special, and unique, but so many folks have now backed away from getting involved, from volunteering, and from attending Sunday Service. Where and how do we find the answers, and the desire to "be part of" again? Tending to daily obligations seems to wear so many of us out far more than before, even with all the technology helps that exist; but technology that kept us all connected to congregations and communities and our lives, has, for some, become a time stealer. We have been unable to 'tune-in' as before! The mind can be compared to listening to a radio, or even, perhaps, to a sunflower? Remember the old antennas attached to radios and televisions? Unless these were turned the right way the reception was poor with static. The mind is the same; when not turned the right way, not tuned in, you experience fade-out, clutter, and poor reception.

Sunflowers, those little seeds when planted in good soil, that get water and sun, will mature to a beautiful bright bloom, and produce useful seeds. A sure thing for the sunflower, is the fact that it always “follows the sun” or “tunes in” as it grows, turning like a radio antenna, to get the best “reception,” and to find its real purpose...producing beautiful yellow flowers to give us joy and food.

So, “tuning in to purpose,” for us as people; might we find the same theory can work for us? What if we stay “turned to the Son,” and keep looking up, and work on clearing the “clutter” from our minds, so we can be open to and “tuned in to our purpose.” It is in these quiet moments, with clear minds, that we become open to the voice of God showing us our purpose. A One-Cent Hog Penny from Bermuda Story by Mary Sumpter,
Bermuda UCW

Bermuda Synod UCW/UCC: Not many members of our congregations know that Region 15 – part of Maritime UCW, includes the island of Bermuda, home of Bermuda Synod United Church of Canada. Pictured on the left is a one-cent Bermudian coin, also known as a “hog penny”. Original coins were called hog money, minted as 12pence/12p (shilling) coins to the smallest 2p (tuppence), named after the wild boar that roamed the island. At the UCW 60th Anniversary in Sydney last summer, then President of Bermuda UCW, Margaret Ingham, brought with her a stash of 300 personally polished hog pennies and the famous story written by Mary Sumpter, to share with us all. Bermuda wild hogs are reported to have been one of the meats salt-preserved by sea going merchant ships to keep their crews supplied, and are also likely to have been an imported food ration that saved settlers in Virginia from starvation in 1610 following a hard winter of famine and disease. Bermuda, as an island, has one continuous ocean coastline, adding this fourth coast to our coastal story for UCW this month. The two UCW units in Bermuda are small (Hamilton Wesley Methodist and Emmanuel), but members gather for faith and fellowship as they are able. As is true here in Canada, members are aging, and holding meetings has become more challenging. The hog penny and its famous story is only one of the many wonders that Bermuda has shared with our UCW network and we look ahead to hearing more from them in a future issue of Keeping in Touch as they celebrate “being UCW”, well into the future.

First Dawn Eastern Edge Newfoundland & Labrador East/West Districts UCW - “Put Your Apron On!” to Celebrate Service and Dedication and Fun

The UCW of West District NL, with President Debra Sparkes Mercer from East District NL gathered for a Retreat Week-End at Max Simm's Camp in Central Newfoundland, this June. The theme of the Gathering was “Put Your Apron On!” to focus on the apron as an iconic symbol for the service and dedication of our United Church Women over the years. A parade of classic aprons, including patchwork creations, were showcased, each with its individual, beautiful story, presented by the owner. It was a wonderful weekend of Worship, Fellowship, Sharing and Fun, with thirty-six dedicated members present.

Each person left the Retreat inspired, looking forward to resuming meetings in September. Since our last in-person meeting in 2019, we are sad to report that many UCW Units have closed; but reports from open Units are positive and that they are getting back on track. May God go with all of us.
